Chacewater School – LEAP Into Learning – Autumn 2 – Mighty Oaks

History – Vicious Vikings – Fact or Fiction

What I might already know: Invaders and settlers

Romans invaded because they wanted Britain's precious metals gold, tin and iron – and its cattle

Anglo-Saxons arrived firstly as warriors employed by the Roman army and then, later as settlers, to farm the land

Explore
Discover
Learn

Vicious Vikings – Fact or Fiction?
Vocabulary Mat

Key words to help us learn about the Vikings.

Viking

A person from Scandinavia who travelled, traded, farmed and sometimes fought.

Longship

A fast Viking boat used for travel, trading and raids.

Warrior

A Viking fighter who took part in battles.

Raid

A surprise attack to steal goods or treasure.

Monastery

A place where monks lived, worked and worshipped.

Monk

A religious man who lived in a monastery. Monks wrote about the Viking raids.

Danelaw

The part of England ruled by Vikings.

Settlement

A place where people live and work together.

Archaeologist

Someone who studies the past by digging up objects.

Artefact

An object from the past that helps us learn about history.

Evidence

Clues or proof that help us understand what happened in the past.

Farmer

Someone who grows crops or keeps animals.

Trader

Someone who buys, sells or swaps goods.

Place Names

Names that show where Vikings settled. Common endings include -by, -thorpe, -thwaite and -toft.

Sticky Knowledge

Vikings travelled in longships.

Vikings carried out raids.

Vikings attacked monasteries.

The Danelaw was controlled by Vikings.

Artefacts give us cvidence about Viking life.

Vikings built settlements.

Many Vikings were farmers.

Many Vikings were traders.

Vikings were both raiders and settlers.

Vikings were not just fierce warriors. They were also settlers, farmers and traders.