

28nd November 2024

Dear parents/carers

This week we have seen Red Oaks complete their two-week swimming block and we are all so proud of them and the progress that they have made. A huge thank you to all of the adults who have supported them throughout (and given up big chunks of their lunchtime!).

On Tuesday we were really pleased to welcome the library service van to school. Mrs Law was assisted by two of our 'Reading Champions', Freya and Rain, in selecting over 100 new books for our library. So . . . even more reason for all of our children to get reading!

Throughout this week, the children have been completing various end of term assessments. They have approached these with real tenacity and perseverance, which has been great to see!

We now have three weeks left until the end of term and a little bit more of our Christmas preparation is underway. The school is frequently being filled with incredible singing led by the wonderful Mrs Hoadley and we are all looking forward to sharing this with you in our last week of term. Below, you can find details of performances, times and a link to request tickets. Finally, thank you to everyone who supported the Christmas Fayre last weekend and our AMAZING PTA for making it happen.

Have a great weekend.
